This commercial brick building is two stories high, 6 bays wide and has a flat roof. Each bay is picked out in shallowly projecting brick bands which delineate each of the large wall openings. Plate glass, a retractable garage door, and a glass block wall infill the first floor openings. The second level bays are filled with double hung windows with 1/1 lights in wooden sash which are set in multiple combinations. A slab stone cornice set flush with the facade crowns the broken roof line.
